As a result, the Grand Mufti of Australia, Dr. Ibrahim Abu Mohamad, announces that:

The Australian National Imams Council acknowledges, understands, and respects the opinions of Imams and scholars who may hold different views. It calls upon the community to respect these differences of opinion and strive towards the greater good and unity of the Muslim community.

We ask Allah the Almighty to accept your worship, intentions, and sacrifices during these blessed days and nights, to accept the Hajj of all Hujaj, return them safely to their families, and make it easy upon our brothers and sisters in Gaza—Palestine.
