Uniting the Imams and Community of Australia

The Australian National Imams Council (ANIC) is the central and peak Islamic body that holds key representation from Australian-based Muslim Imams, scholars and clerics.

Registered as a public company, ANIC was established in 2006 as an umbrella organisation consisting of a Council of Imams, representing each Australian state and territory.

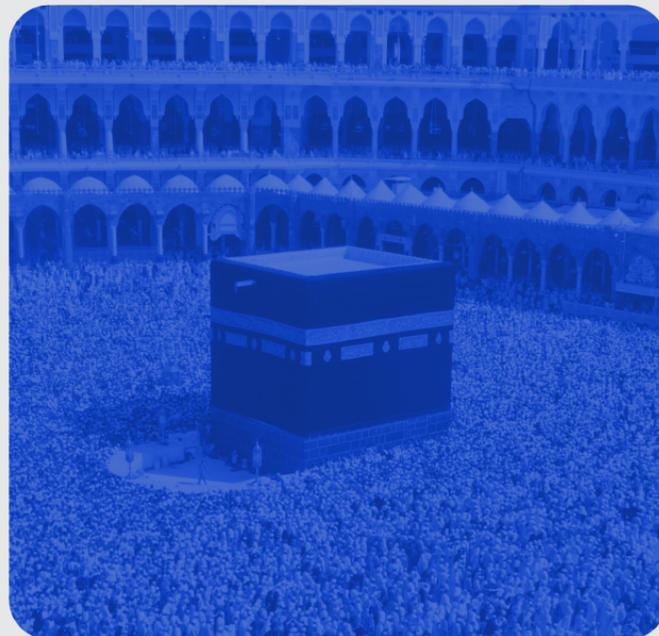

The Australian National Imams Council (ANIC) is the only central, Islamic body that holds key representation from Australian-based Muslim Imams and Clerics.

Registered as a public company, ANIC was established in late 2006 as an umbrella organisation consisting of a Council of Imams, representing each Australian state and territory. ANIC seeks to unite the Councils of Imams of Australian States and Territories in order to streamline the activities of scholars in Australia, to better serve the diverse Australian Muslim community throughout the nation.

ANIC is governed by a General Assembly on the executive board, solely elected by the board's members. At the Councils' inaugural General Assembly Meeting held in March 2006, the ANIC executive board of 20 members representing all states and territories were elected for a three-year term.

A key resolution passed at the inaugural AGM empowered the executive board to elect and appoint the position of The Grand Mufti of Australia. The Grand Mufti of Australia Chairs the Australian Fatwa Council, which focuses on issuing Fatwas (Islamic Verdicts) and conducting research on contemporary issues and matters pertaining to Australian Muslims, spiritual guidance, and the preservation of Islamic Identity.

Our Vision

The vision of the ANIC is to be a leading body representing mainstream Islam in Australia. ANIC aims to utilise the skills, qualifications and expertise of Imams and Islamic scholars to promote and contribute to the betterment of the Australian Muslim community and the wider Australian society at large.

The mission of ANIC is to provide religious leadership, rulings and services to the Muslim community.

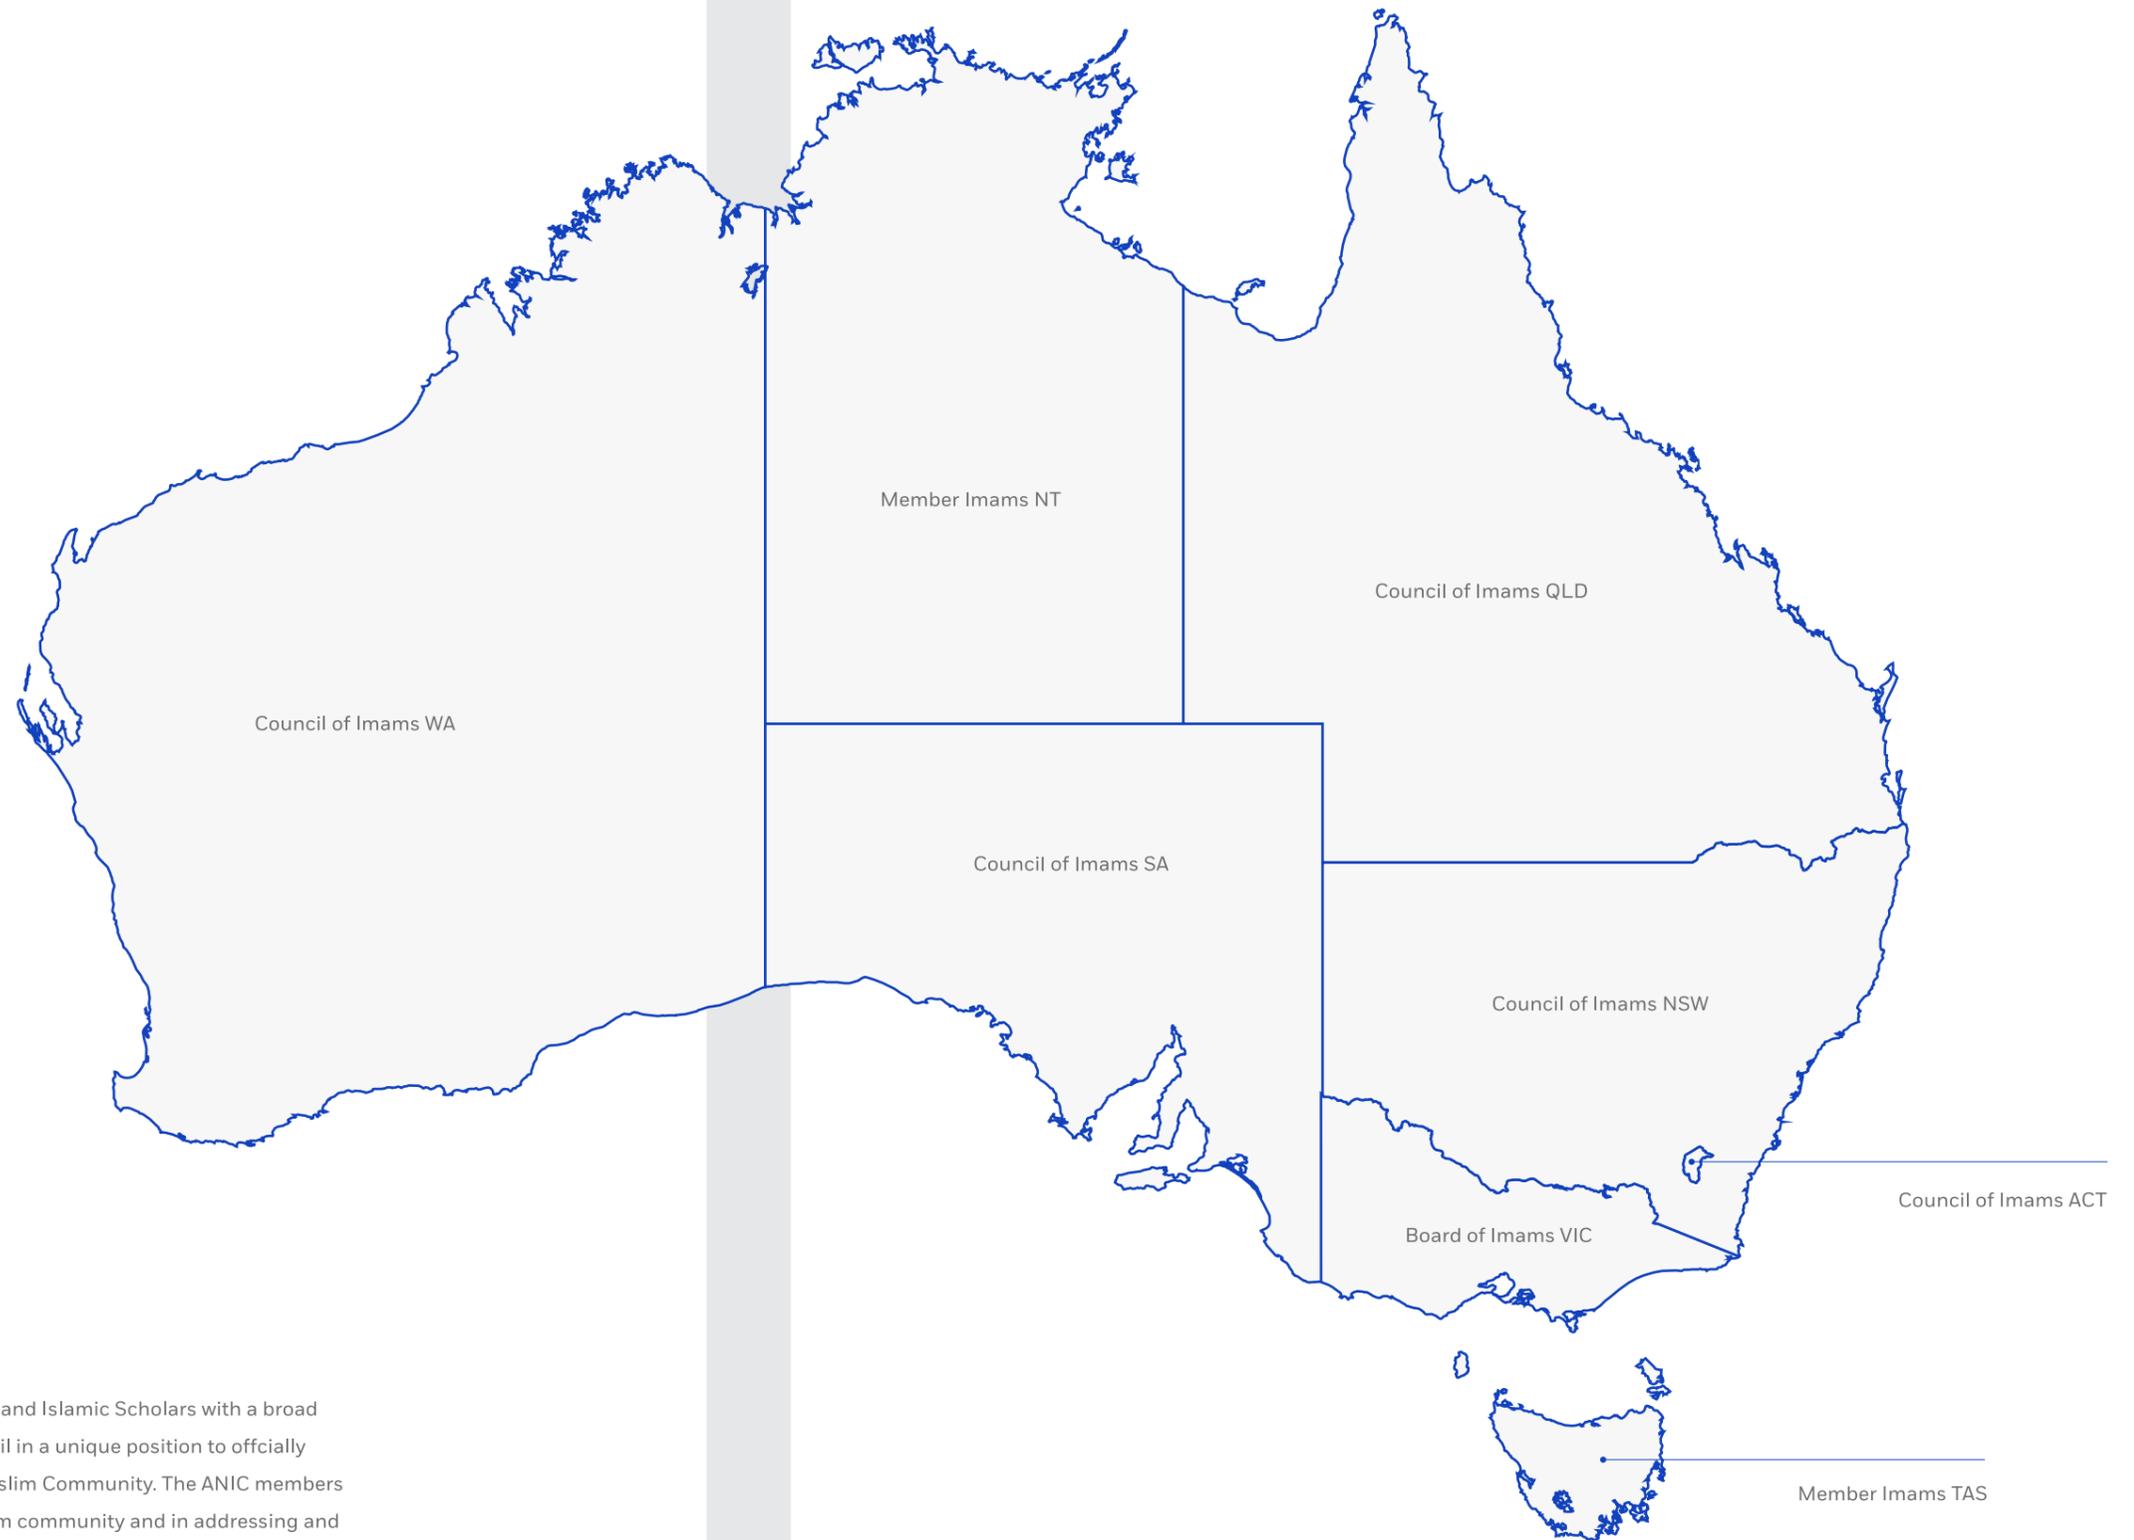

Our Values

The mission of ANIC is to provide religious leadership, rulings and services to the Muslim community of Australia. ANIC endeavours to support the local Islamic community in all areas, by fostering good relations with other religious communities and the wider Australian society, in an effort to promote harmony, cooperation and successful integration within mainstream society.

Our Imams are located in every Australian State

Currently there are over 300 member Imams who are active in working with the Muslim Community in all states and territories.

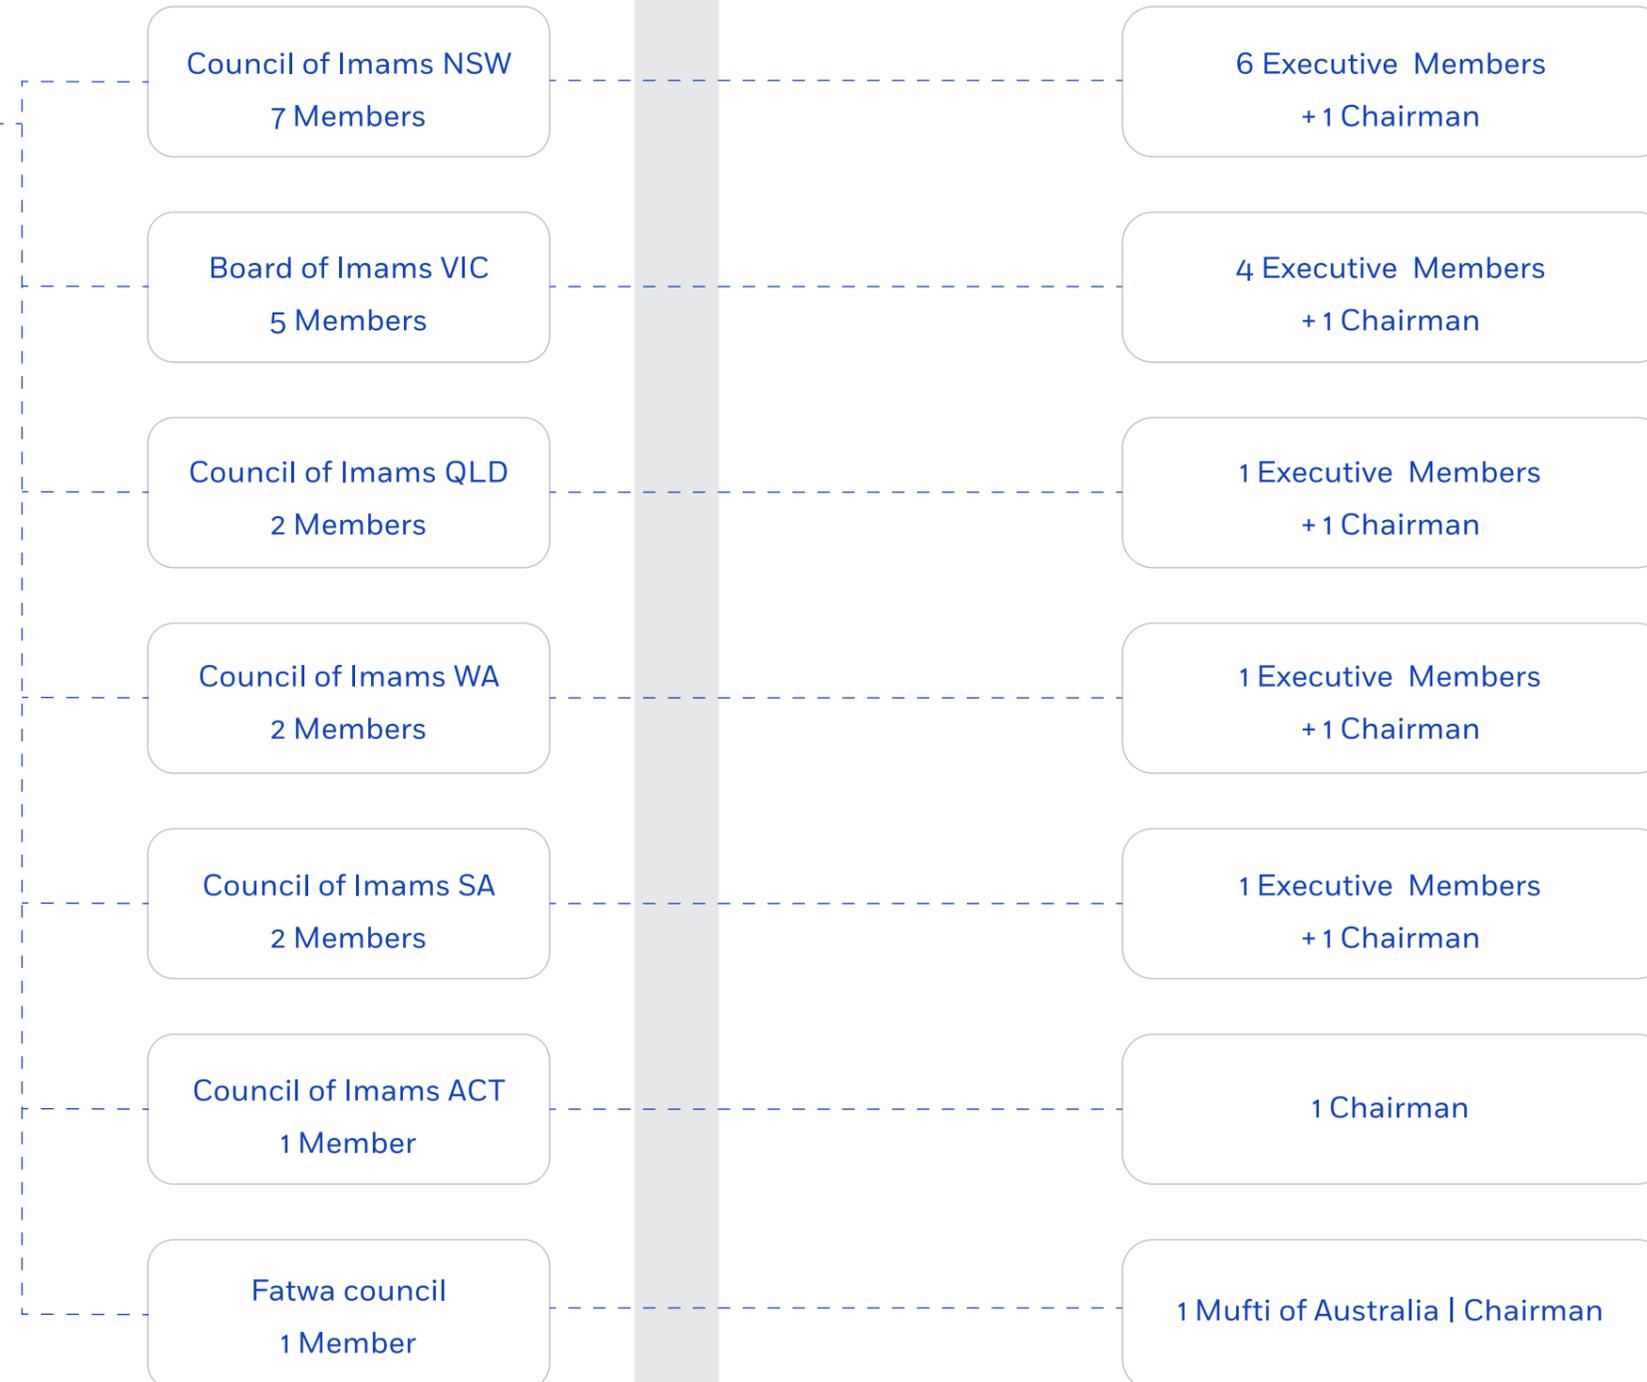

ANIC is currently the sole national body of Imams and Islamic Scholars with a broad community representation. This places the Council in a unique position to officially represent the wider interests of the Australian Muslim Community. The ANIC members are involved in the day-to-day affairs of the Muslim community and in addressing and assisting in the affairs and concerns of the growing Muslim community.

ANIC Executive Committee Representation

Registered as a public company, ANIC was established in late 2006 as an umbrella organisation consisting of a Council of Imams, representing each Australian state and territory.

ANIC has a total of 20 Executive Committee Representatives from all major states in Australia.

Our Mission

To ensure that all Halal certified products and premises are in strict compliance with Islamic principles and lawful for Muslims to consume and use.

Our Objective

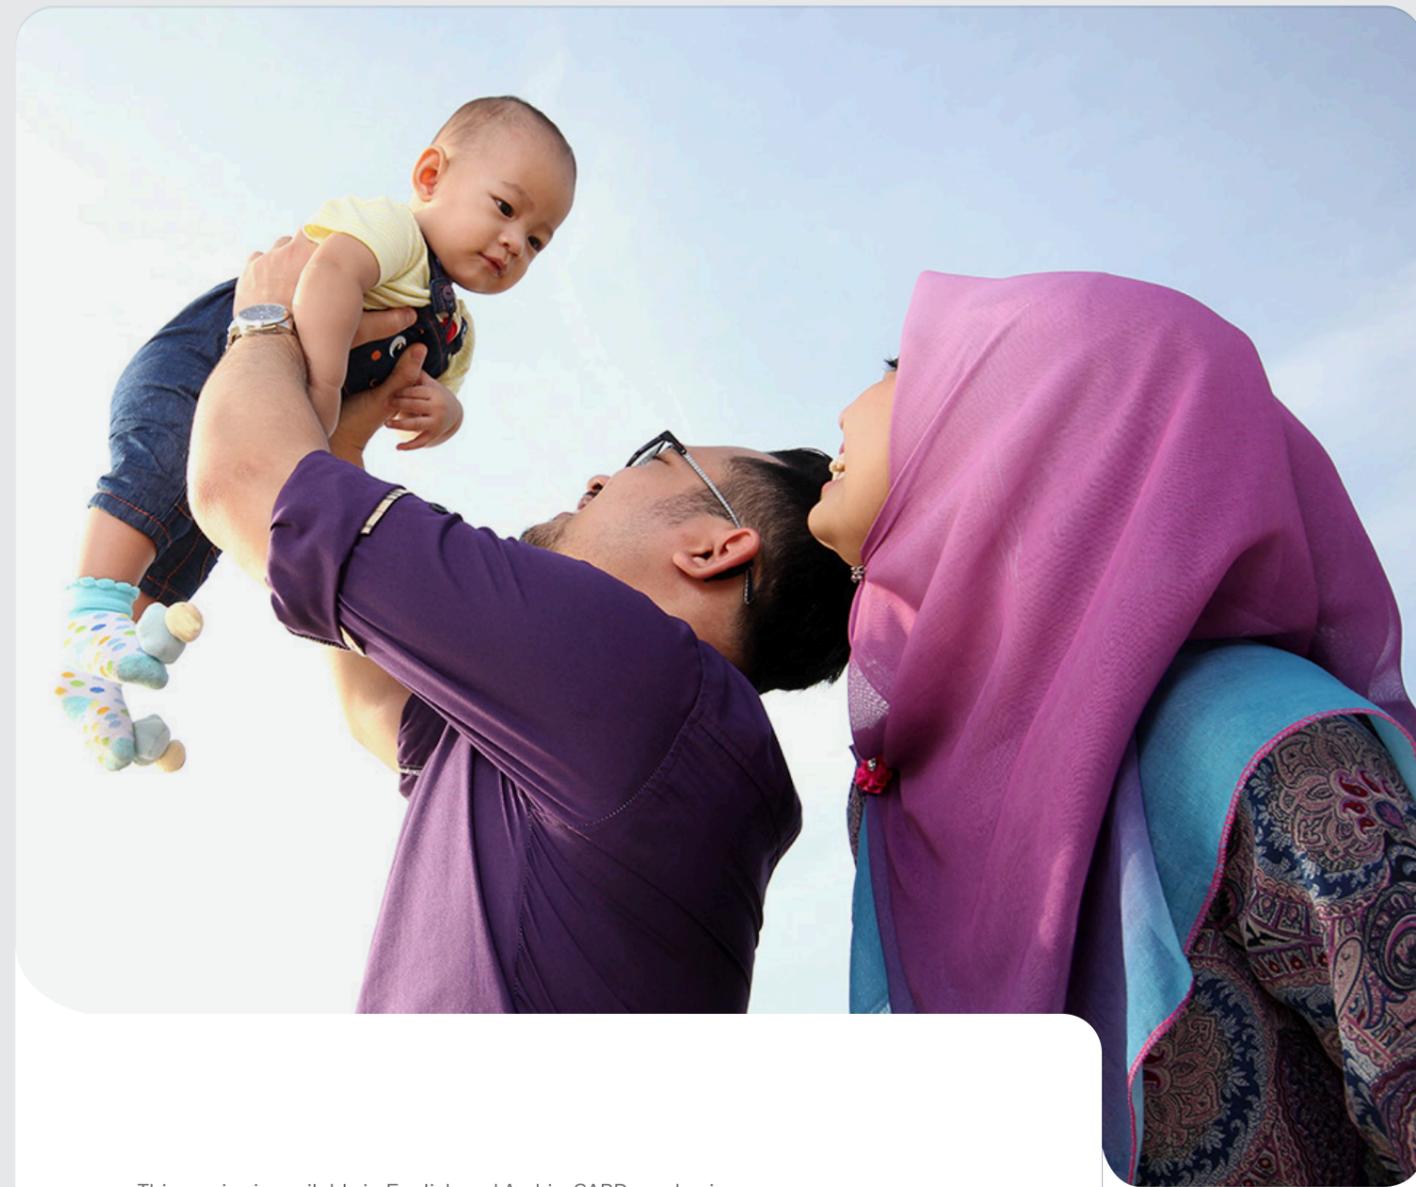

To examine, certify, and regulate all food products and consumer products in an efficient and effective manner so as to guarantee that it complies with Halal requirements as required by Shariah.

Centre for Arbitration & the Resolution of Disputes

The Australian National Imams Council has developed the Centre for Arbitration and the Resolution Disputes Ltd (CARD). CARD is a service to assist people in the Islamic Communities of Australia by facilitating the resolution of marital disputes.

CARD facilitates Islamic mediation and arbitration to assist and advise both parties to identify the more appropriate process for the resolution of dispute/s in accordance with Islamic Law and in consistency with the Australian legal system.

This service is available in English and Arabic. CARD emphasises professionalism, impartiality and confidentiality.

During this sensitive stage CARD is aware of the emotional toll placed on families, therefore consultation sessions are conducted in a private setting to maintain client confidentiality. All sessions are conducted in the presence of three respectable Imams whom are qualified in the area of Islamic Arbitration and Resolution Dispute, and a female administrator.

Action Against Islamophobia

Action Against Islamophobia was founded by the Australian National Imams Council, a peak body that represents the interests of Muslims in Australia. Our primary objective is to provide Australian Muslims with a platform where their voices are heard, whereby any Islamophobic / anti-muslim sentiment incident(s) they have experienced or witnessed are recorded, published and followed up on with the relevant authorities.

The reporting of Islamophobic / anti-muslim incidents also plays a key role in advocating and lobbying for legislative protections for minority communities on a state and national level.

Our mission is to stand against any anti-Muslim sentiment and play our part in making Australia a safe place for not just the Muslim community but also for minority communities.

We hope to change the narrative and present to the broader public the real and authentic version of Australian Muslims who are often misrepresented both locally and globally. Such misrepresentations have been counter productive in delivering peace, harmony and tolerance within the Australian community.

- Violent life-threatening attack on a Muslim.
- A physical attack that doesn't pose a life-threat.
- Destruction of property resulting in financial loss.
- Hate speech or verbal abuse on any online or offline platform.
- Discrimination against Muslims across private and public settings.
